Private Law 96-115
96th Congress

An Act

Dec. 22, 1980
[H.R. 6836]

For the relief of James A. Schultz.

James A.
Schultz.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That James A. Schultz, of Peoria, Illinois, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $4,958.37, which represents the amount that Mr. Schultz is indebted to the Department of Agriculture for overpayments for travel and relocation expenses arising from his employment transfer to the United States Forest Service, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on July 15, 1978. Mr. Schultz was erroneously informed by agents of the Federal Government that he was entitled to reimbursement of all travel and relocation expenses he incurred with respect to such transfer.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mr. Schultz, $921.74, in full settlement of his claims against the United States for payments he has made to reimburse the Department of Agriculture for travel and relocation expenses which it erroneously paid to him with respect to the transfer referred to in the first section of this Act.

SEC. 3. No part of the amount appropriated by section 2 of this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved December 22, 1980.
